Someone he knew was best described as a "New York boy" and "homely church boy".

Salted crumbs, corn and oven bread.

The Synagogue had a "temple shop"...

A uniform shop boy (black clothes) in one of the department stores.

"Earth shop"

~~shop~~ boy
number shop boy
church boy
New York boy
crumbs
salt
oven
corn
bread
homely church boy
temple shop
color shop boy
money shop boy
straight from the boat shop boy taste shop boy

defense shop boy
bottle shop boy
milk shop boy
spices shop
great depression shop boy board games shop
soup shop boy
rose shop boy
fruit shop
kitchen shop
earth shop
uniform shop boy
carpet shop
Sunday shop boy
corner shop
magic shop
candy shop
green shop
meat shop boy

noodles shop boy
expat shop
newspapers shop
vegetables shop
triad shop